

ZIMMERMANN, LAVINE, ZIMMERMANN, & SAMPSON, P.C.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW
770 SOUTH POST OAK LANE, SUITE 620
HOUSTON, TEXAS 77056
713-552-0300 FAX 713-552-0746
WWW.TEXASDEFENSELAWYERS.COM

JACK B. ZIMMERMANN
JIM E. LAVINE

TERRI R. ZIMMERMANN
KYLE R. SAMPSON

TERRI R. ZIMMERMANN

BOARD CERTIFIED – CRIMINAL LAW BY THE TEXAS BOARD OF LEGAL SPECIALIZATION
BOARD CERTIFIED CRIMINAL TRIAL ADVOCATE BY THE NATIONAL BOARD OF TRIAL ADVOCACY

PERSONAL

- B.A. with Honors from University of Texas, 1989
- J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center, 1992
- U.S. Marine Corps Reserve since 1989; earned Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal during active duty service (1993-1996) and Certificate of Commendation during active duty mobilization (February to August 2008); also entitled to wear Selected Marine Corps Reserve Medal, National Defense Service Medal with gold star, and Armed Forces Reserve Medal with bronze hourglass

LEGAL BACKGROUND

- Shareholder at Zimmermann, Lavine, Zimmermann, & Sampson, P.C., Houston, Texas; practices primarily criminal defense and military law in state, federal, and military courts
- Lieutenant Colonel, U.S. Marine Corps Reserve; certified as a Judge Advocate
- Formerly, on active duty in the U.S. Marine Corps; served as Civil Law Officer, Review Officer, and Prosecutor
- Former Associate at Jordan, Coyne, Savits & Lopata, Washington, D.C.

BAR ACTIVITIES

- Former Chair - Military Law Section, State Bar of Texas
- Co-Vice-Chair - Military Law Section, National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers
- Member - American Bar Association
- Member - Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association
- Member - Harris County Criminal Lawyers Association
- Member - Houston Bar Association

BAR ADMISSIONS

- U.S. Supreme Court
- Supreme Court of Texas
- Maryland Court of Appeals
- U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit
- U.S. Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces
- U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas
- U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland

NOTEWORTHY CASES

- State v. Wanda Holloway, represented client given probation for solicitation of capital murder – so-called “Cheerleader Mom” case (1996-1997, Houston, Texas)
- State v. Corporal Clemente Bañuelos and United States v. Corporal Clemente Bañuelos, represented active-duty Marine on anti-drug mission on U.S.-Mexican border who returned fire from a man on U.S. side, killing him; two State grand juries and federal civil rights grand jury refused to indict (1997-1998, Marfa and Pecos, Texas)
- United States v. George L.J. Wilson, represented Bahamian businessman on appeal; mail fraud, money-laundering convictions and 20-year sentence reversed on appeal and charges dismissed (1999-2003, Houston, Texas)
- Texas v. Angel Maturino Resendiz, represented “Railcar Killer” in proceedings to determine his competency to be executed for capital murder (2006, Houston, Texas)
- United States v. Lance Corporal Stephen Tatum, represented active-duty Marine charged in deaths of Iraqi civilians; charges dismissed on eve of trial (2007-2008, Camp Pendleton, California)

OCTOBER 2009

LIEUTENANT COLONEL TERRI R. ZIMMERMANN
JUDGE ADVOCATE, UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS RESERVE

Lieutenant Colonel Terri R. Zimmermann graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Government with honors in May 1989. In August of that year, she signed a Platoon Leaders Class (Law) contract and left for Washington, D.C., where she attended Georgetown University Law Center. During the summer between her first and second year of law school, she graduated from Officer Candidate School in Quantico, Virginia, and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant. The following summer, she served on active duty for 30 days as a trial counsel at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. After graduation from law school in May 1992, as a First Lieutenant, she passed the Maryland bar exam and worked at a local D.C. law firm until she entered The Basic School at Quantico in January 1993. She graduated with Bravo Company in July 1993 and moved to Marine Corps Air Station El Toro, California. After Naval Justice School in Newport, Rhode Island, she became the Civil Law and Review Officer at the Joint Law Center at El Toro. She performed these duties for approximately one year, and after her promotion to Captain on 1 September 1994, she became a prosecutor. She was a trial counsel until she began her terminal leave at the end of May 1996.

After leaving active duty, she returned to her hometown of Houston, Texas, where she began her civilian law practice as an associate at Zimmermann & Lavine, P.C. (now Zimmermann, Lavine, Zimmermann, & Sampson, P.C.). She passed the Texas bar exam, and practices primarily criminal defense and military law in federal, state and military courts. She remained in the Reserves and assumed the responsibilities of appellate defense counsel at the Navy and Marine Corps Appellate Review Activity as an Individual Mobilization Augmentee in August 1996. She was promoted to Major in October 1999. She transferred to the Individual Ready Reserve in August 2000 but continued to perform duties as appellate defense counsel. She also completed special assignments for the Staff Judge Advocate, Mobilization Command and the Staff Judge Advocate, Marine Forces Reserve. She re-joined the IMA in February 2005 and was still assigned to the Appellate Defense Division. She was promoted to her current rank effective 1 October 2005. In April 2006 she transferred to the Legal Mobilization Training Unit at the Marine Corps Mobilization Command in Kansas City, Missouri, and served as the Operations Officer of that unit until the end of 2007.

LtCol Zimmermann was mobilized and served on active duty from February to August 2008 as the Deputy Counsel to the Commanding Officer of the Marine Corps Tactical Systems Support Activity at Camp Pendleton, California. She earned a Certificate of Commendation for her service at MCTSSA.

LtCol Zimmermann also is entitled to wear the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal, the Selected Marine Corps Reserve Medal, the National Defense Service Medal with gold star, and the Armed Forces Reserve Medal with bronze hourglass.